"Hello, Oahu Lumber and Building Co."

"Hello!"
"What kind of house can you build for $500?"
"Almost as good as you can get in California."
"How can you build them so cheap?"
"Because we import all our materials direct from the factory, and employ the best workmen. The best is the cheapest."
"Where is your business place?"
"Our Office and Yard is on King street, near O. R. & L. Co.'s Depot; our Planing Mill corner King and Bethel streets. Telephones 53 and 838. P. O. Box 367. We can give you hundreds of first-class references, among the leading people of these islands."

Impure Blood

Rheumatism, Kidney Troubles and Sick Headache the Results—Doc-tored for Years Without Relief.

"My blood was out of order, and I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has purified my blood and relieved me of rheumatism, kidney trouble and sick headaches. I have been afflicted with these difficulties for years. I am now able to do a good day's work. Rheumatism has troubled me since I was a child, but I am now entirely well." Miss PHOEBE BARTLEY, Box 445, Pasadena, California.

"I have suffered from the effects of impure blood, boils, pimples, etc., for five years. I have tried various remedies without relief and finally purchased six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The boils and pimples have all disappeared since I began taking this medicine. I am now entirely cured." LOUIS THOMAS, 1412 11th Street, Oakland, California.

FOR SATURDAY SADNESS.

BY DIOGENES.

ON 'CHANGE.

Plunger—What's Kihei?
Lounge—It's a plantation on Maui.

Plunger—I mean where's it selling at?

Lounge—At the Board, I s'pose.

Plunger—But what's it bring-ing?
Lounge—Sorrow to the fellows who have it when it's low, and to the fellows who want it when it's high.

Plunger—I think you're the high and low ends and middle of a blamed fool. [Snorts.]

Lounge—Maybe I am, but I ain't one of those sorry fools. [Sneezes—Kee-hay-ee-ah-choo!]

Chairman—The Board will please come to order. Janitor, where's the water?

It may not be new,
Though none the less true
And suited to things that we see,
That whatever goes high
Comes down on the fly—
Unless it sticks up on a tree.

Better a mickle that's marked paid on the broker's stub, than a muckle to be wiped out in the delinquent rub.

A too old-fashioned joke makes me as sad as a too aged one. The size of a theater hat and the texture of a young wife's doughnuts are not esteemed joking matters nowadays.

Now will Hilo people shut up on Honolulu's grabbing and self-fish proclivities long enough to take stock in the Hilo railroad, of which Honolulu business men offer them the refusal for all they can carry? I feel for the Hiloites just now as I should for a fellow offered a good cigar by a man whom he had just backbitten as a son of a sea cook.

Cut this prophecy out and paste it in your historical scrap book. The time is at hand when one may travel from Honolulu to Hilo within a maximum of thirteen hours. Express steamers between Honolulu and Lahaina, and Hana and Mahukona, connecting with express trains between Lahaina and Hana, and Mahukona and Hilo. Possibly eight or nine hours will be an easy minimum.

Too much taffy altogether, that's what there is in Hawaiian official life. The levying of contributions on the pay of public servants for testimonials to superiors, either going or staying, ought to be prohibited by law. It is scandalous. Even if voluntary the movement, it should not be allowed. One or more there will be who pay only because they are afraid to refuse. British military rules, applicable to volunteers and other militia alike with the regular army, prohibit any organization thereunder both from resolving praise or blame upon, or giving presents to, superiors. The example is just and right to follow anywhere. If the police force of Hawaii receive more money than their families need, let them put it into a common fund to aid a comrade falling into distress. For them to "dig" under constraint or otherwise, for a parting testimonial to a high salaried officer leaving his job—while perhaps they do not care a snap for him personally—would be ridiculous only that it is too humiliating for ridicule.

BIRD OF DESTINY.

Divvy Dend—Don't you think it's foolish to shoo away the goose that lays the golden egg, which it looks like, selling off the bulk of interest in the country's main industry?

The two-year-old son of W. L. Ferguson, of Bolton, Miss., had whooping cough. "After several physicians had prescribed for him, without giving relief," writes Mr. Ferguson, "I persuaded my wife to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first dose had the desired effect, and in forty-eight hours he was entirely free from all cough. I consider your remedy the best in the market, especially for children and recommend it at all times." 50 cent sizes for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., General Agents.
